

Double-murder mystery night supports charity

Lawyers and former police officers among the guests at a murder mystery event were upstaged by carer Wendy "Sherlock" Holmes - who worked out 'whodunit.'

The evening, at the Links Hotel, at West Runton, saw 50 guests mingling with eight actors from Dreamstone who acted out the deadly drama, set in the 1920s.

Two people died amid the drug-smuggling gangster action, and it was left to Wendy to solve the case. The event was organised by Sheringham friends Sharon Bowen and Paula Popham. It raised more than £200 for the Sue Ryder charity and Mrs Bowen said it was so successful they hoped to stage another one next year.
